MANX RESIDENTS

As Utmost International Isle of Man Limited is a Zero Rated company it can accept business from Manx resident persons or legal entities. However, the Isle of Man Assessor of Taxes does not have a standard approach to the taxation of insurance contracts held by Manx residents. The Assessor has previously indicated that both the manner that the proceeds are taken from the insurance contract and the type of underlying assets held will determine what tax will be charged on a Manx resident holding an Isle of Man policy. Consequently, Utmost International Isle of Man Limited cannot comment on how any investment held by a Manx resident will be taxed under Manx Law and each individual client will need to speak to the Isle of Man Assessor of Income Tax to establish the position.

Without confirmation of how the bond is taxed, it might be difficult for a financial adviser to demonstrate that best advice has been given. The financial adviser may wish to encourage the client to approach the Assessor of Taxes to agree a basis for taxation before submitting their application to the insurer for the business.

We require this declaration to be signed by the applicant to acknowledge that Utmost International Isle of Man Limited makes no representation as to the tax treatment of the proposed investment if owned by a Manx resident. The applicant(s) accept that it is their own responsibility (with appropriate assistance from his or her professional financial advisers) to determine the taxation of the investment.
